

Hyperbaric Medicine Introductory Course Individual Disclosure

ACHM Disclosure Policy: The ACHM must ensure objectivity and independence, and the absence of financial bias in approved/endorsed educational activities. The intent of this disclosure is not to prevent a speaker from participation in an approved educational activity, but rather to disclose any financial relationships so that conflicts can be resolved prior to the course or event. All speakers and planners participating in approved/endorsed educational activities must disclose to the ACHM, and to the students attending the educational activity, any relevant financial relationships with commercial interests related to the content of their presentation.

Commercial Interest / Financial Relationships

Yes No Do you have any relevant financial relationships with proprietary entities producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients related to the content of this activity? The ACCME does not consider providers of clinical service directly to patients to be commercial interests.

Yes No Have you and/or your spouse or partner had a relevant financial relationship in any amount, which occurred in the twelve-month period preceding the time you were asked to assume a role controlling content of the CME activity, and which relates to the content of the educational activity, causing a conflict of interest?

If you have answered yes to either of the questions above, please identify the company and the nature of the relationship below:

Commercial Interest (Manufacturer/Provider/Commercial Supporter) - See next page for additional commercial interest reporting space.	Nature of Relationship
	Employment	Leadership	Research Funding	Consultant	Speaker Bureau	Stock or Investment	Other Comp

Please read and initial the following guidelines to indicate your understanding and willingness to comply with each statement.

I have disclosed all relevant financial relationships, and I will disclose this information to learners verbally (for live activities) and in print through a disclosure PowerPoint slide immediately after my title slide and prior to my educational material.
The content and/or presentation of the information with which I am involved will promote quality or improvements in healthcare and will not promote a specific proprietary business interest of a commercial interest. Content for this activity, including any presentation of therapeutic options, will be well-balanced, evidence-based and unbiased.
I have not and will not accept any honoraria, additional payments or reimbursements beyond that which has been agreed upon directly with the Activity Director.
I understand that the ACHM may need to review my presentation and/or content prior to the activity, and I will provide educational content and resources in advance as requested.
I understand that my presentation must be educational, and not promotional, in nature.

If I am providing recommendations involving clinical medicine, they will be based on evidence that is accepted within the profession of medicine as adequate justification for their indications and contraindications in patient care. All scientific research referred to, reported or used in CME in support of justification of a patient care recommendation will conform to the generally accepted standards of experimental design, data collection and analysis.
If I am discussing specific healthcare products or services, I will use generic names to the extent possible. If I need to use trade names, I will use trade names from several companies when available, and not just trade names from any single company.
If I am discussing any product use that is off label, I will disclose that the use or indication in question is not currently approved by the FDA for labeling or advertising.
If I have been trained or utilized by a commercial entity or its agent as a speaker (e.g., speaker's bureau) for any commercial interest, the promotional aspects of that presentation will not be included in any way with this activity.
If I am presenting research funded by a commercial company, the information presented will be based on generally accepted scientific principles/ methods, and will not promote the commercial interest of the funding company.

I affirm that I have carefully read and considered each item in this form. I have completed this form to the best of my ability. I acknowledge that I understand my disclosure obligations as outlined above.
